What happened at the meeting

- Everything was discussed as stated on the agenda, except that an administrative assistant was not selected; this selection will occur at the next meeting. Until then, Steve Sokolowski will write this account of the meeting.

Summary of Information

- Jared Sorber has declined to provide any funding for the project. Alternative funding sources will have to be explored.
- The live shows will be taped on the ground floor of the HUB between 10:00pm and 2:00am on March 19 and April 23.

Summary of Decisions

- The first act of the team will be to begin polling students. John Silvestri and Mike Anzalone will spend time this weekend creating around 32 questions for later polling.
- Advertising will be a priority, but work on advertising cannot proceed until Adam Pietrala (adp148@psu.edu) returns from a trip on Monday and he is contacted.
- Next week or the week after, a table or a location will be set up in the HUB to get the word out about the event and to recruit more members.
- After talking to Adam, Steve will contact companies such as Pizza Roma and the Student Book Store to donate prizes.
- The committee requested Wendy Rosoff to reserve a meeting room in the HUB on March 15, from 6:00pm to 9:00pm, for a rehearsal. All committee members will be required to attend.
- Although some committee members requested that the weekly meeting time be on Mondays at 6pm, it was decided that the permanent time will be set for Thursdays at 6pm, continuing on February 12.
