Minutes from Campus Feud Meeting
February 12, 2004

-Discussed Membership Agreement
    -check ANGEL for information and form to sign
-Roadblocks
    -PSU Late Night Problems
        -Only one night available instead of 2
        -Host has conflict with Late Night's date
    -No Advertising though PSN and no outside businesses allowed to be contacted
    -New host may be needed
-Solutions
    -To bring out audience, have a system where contestants are picked randomly from audience
    -Advertise outside of PSN, advertise as an independent group
    -It was decided to take the Late Night slot offered, even though they offered no money
    -Also may be able to tape a non-live audience show at the Studio
        -Could work as a pilot, or as an airable show
        -Before Spring Break!
    -Need a sponsor
    -Email Spanier about securing funds for Late Night taping
    -To inform people of Campus Feud, just spread the word through friends
    -Talk to Zach about PSN's part of the show (airing, advertising, etc)
-Domain name and website for campusfeud.com discussed
    -Need webmaster (John possibly)
-Need a Logo for website/show
    -Contact friends with artistic backgrounds/experience
-From here on the meeting split into 2 groups, questions and set discussion
    -The Questions group went over what questions should be asked, and where, and by when.
    -The Stage Crew committee created a list of items to be brought to next week's meeting for inclusion with the set.
