IV. New Business
   a. Council Discussion
      i. You will be broken into groups, and each group will have a caucus director, committee director, and department member, discuss reoccurring theme, come together with suggestions on themes, take notes, and start generating the possibilities of solving some of these problems, Kevin, Ryan, and Liz – Group 1; Crystal, Joe, and Vera – Group 2; Thom, Bizzaro, Drew, and Cuppett – Group 3; Marko, Brett, and Olney – Group 4 ii. Will talk about this at the next meeting, if you want to meet with your groups you can, able to go through some of this stuff, read through this stuff at the end of the week, try to get an idea about what they are trying to say
   b. Scuppett Invitational Team

i. I am going to tell everyone what happened all day long, I brought a box and I will get to that later, 4:30 our morning started, we began our journey after Paul showered, then we went over to Joe's, Joe wasn't home yet he was still in Lock Haven and wasn't quite sober, then we drove to McKeesport, and Joe passed out, we get to McKeesport an hour and 50 minutes later, and then we went to Denny's, we got destroyed by 30 something alumni, we are in the loser bracket, some of us got to play on Penn State New Kensington's team, Joe was working off his drunkenness, and then we played horrible teams, and then we got good, Zegar was done with his student teaching which he did on my laptop, we won second place and got Penn State mugs

V. Old Business
   a. Staff Game
      i. This week I didn't get around to the game, Cuppett has an interesting game with Thom

   d. Vice President –
      i. Nothing
      ii. CLRC still meeting tomorrow at 6pm and getting dinner
   e. President –
      i. Volunteer to sit on Summer Leadership Conference committee, want someone who is planning to be involved in the organization, really important position, if you are interested and are planning on being part of CCSG, meeting will be at University Park and the second meeting will be on site; Richel will be co-chairing, may have to attend a meeting over the summer, must be a full time student, ii. Thank everyone who participated in volleyball marathon and other THON events, really means a lot, good for us to go to the campuses

iii. USG senate appointed a new CCSG liaison, he will be joining us next week iv. Next week – DSA meeting, will be going over ideas for leadership conference, Diversity Summit, will not be bringing up any information about council discussion, will bring up Change of Assignment
v. Staff mailboxes are private and people can not put stuff in there, you have the right to take all the flyers from them, not an advertising place, if they want to advertise they must talk to the office manager, Chris, if you would like to promote something just talk to Chris about it and you will be allowed to put it in
vi. Lauren will be sitting on the ring choosing committee

VII. Open Forum
a. Canning trips – Chris – will still be going and might be going to the city for a non bar tour, going to get some pledge books – local businesses, will probably make as much money, want corporate packets, won't do anything illegal, won't do canning because it is illegal
b. Marko – still going to Washington DC, Anthony is excited about seeing the Senate, pledge books and corporate packets for Marko as well
c. Thom – just so everyone knows, they give you money later, and that's when they will send their money in, don't worry about organization numbers right now, if there is anybody who isn't going if you can please go, Tara will not be going, and depending on what she wants I may not be going, she had a medical emergency, will be coming back Thursday and Friday and will be catching up on work, please direct all THON questions to Thom, needs downtime
